Guidance on what to include on your Scholarship application

Your personal statement should be well organized enough to make you stand out from the rest of the scholarship applicants. The statement should describe you as a person, as a student and a potential scholarship recipient. Please share with us your story. You can write your personal statement letter either in Amharic or English.

- Introduce yourself, your interests, and motivations
    - Briefly share who you are, where you are from, your family background, and tell us what your interests are

- Explain why you are interested in web development
    - Elaborate on your academic interests
    - Tell us what sparked your desire to learn web development
    - Indicate your excitement and readiness for the challenges ahead of you

- Explain why we should grant you a scholarship. In short, explain why you are the best candidate for the scholarship opportunity
    - Explain what drives/motivates you
    - Explain your strongest qualities/personal characteristics that distinguish you from everyone else. Please demonstrate this by:
        - Explaining your life/personal experience
        - Explaining your educational experience
    - Explain your major accomplishments, and why you consider them as accomplishments
    - Explain your career goals: explain where you plan to see yourself in 10 years

- Connect your goals with the opportunities receiving the scholarship will provide
    - Explain how this scholarship opportunity will help you achieve the career goal you stated above
    - Explain all special personal or family circumstances affecting your ability to pay for this course. In short, explain your financial hardship

- Conclusion
  - ○ Use this as your last chance to impress the person reading your application

Note:

Please remember that close to a thousand applicants send their application everytime we provide this kind of opportunity. Please try your best to show us why we should choose you as a winner.

Email your application to: support@evangadi.com